Jane Holbrook Jewell Scholarship Award

The applicant should describe in three paragraphs activities/interests that the applicant wishes the committee to consider. Examples might include (but are not limited to) volunteering in a museum, a research report on a subject related to history or drama, and/or participation in theatrical performance. Please include any awards, honors or memberships relating to your eligibility.

Please type your paragraphs on only one page and attach this as a separate document to page one of your application. Do not include your name on this page.

The committee will consider academic quality, leadership skills, artistic and creative elements, and contribution to the community.

All applications must be postmarked by February 28th and mailed to:

Weymouth Historical Society
Po Box 56
S Weymouth, MA 02190

Statement of Intent: The Jane Holbrook Jewell Scholarship Fund is intended to provide financial support for the post-secondary education of deserving Weymouth residents, to publicize the Weymouth Historical Society and to recognize, in perpetuity, the long record of academic, professional, civic and financial contributions made to the Town of Weymouth and the Weymouth Historical Society by the Holbrook family. The fund especially recognizes the generosity of Jane Holbrook Jewell and the actor Hal Holbrook.
