NEWSLETTER

FEBRUARY 1973

Our post holiday programs were scheduled to commence with an illustrated "History in Stamps" by Roy Weeks. Not only was the President called away unexpectedly, leaving the honors up to the Vice President, but the speaker was ill at the last moment. As usual, with the chips down, Marion Belcher saved the "day" with an impromptu slide-talk on Maine. Many, many thanks, Marion!!!

The next meeting will be February 14th at South High School, 360 Pleasant Street, at 7:45 P.M. and will feature William Rathbun's illustrated talk on "Women from Cave to Lib." Let's have a good turn out!

It was with regret we got word of the following members having been hospitalized - and hope by now they are feeling much better!

Helen Bicknell

Douglas Welsh

Doris Partridge
