Time: 9 to 5

We are sure that many of you have suitable items to donate to the Flea Market. Please call Don Cormack at 335-7542.

If you have enough items to sell for yourself, why not take a table? Call Don Lewis at 337-6106.

We are depending upon you all. This is one small way to contribute to the society. See you there!

Postponement: The library repairs are not yet completed so the exhibit planned for May has been postponed to September. Watch for the special notice in the next newsletter. Exciting new displays are planned.

Vice-President	Harold Olson

Record. Secretary	Jean Dawes

Another Season Coming Up: Let's make it an outstanding year! We hope each and every one of you will encourage people to attend every meeting. The program committee has already met and is planning another interesting and informative schedule. On that committee are: Doris and Doug Welsh, Chet Kevitt and Marion and Hall Carpenter. Marion not only works hard for us but puts in long hours for the Quincy Historical Society and the Abigail Adams Historical Society.

A Milestone: We probably should say "many milestones." After many years of hard work the Quincy Historical Society will open its headquarters to the public on June 1. Watch the newspapers, go to the Flea Market first and then visit them at Adams Academy.

Our Thanks To The Hostesses: We always enjoy the social hour after our meetings and we want to thank those responsible for all the very delightful evenings: Marion Carpenter, Doris Welsh, Joanne Palmieri, Betty Kevitt, Rita Walsh, Eleanore Montgomery, Jean Dawes, Christine Stanton, Bonnie Farrin, Margaret DeRosa, Mary MacKay, Virginia Lewis and Donna Lewis.

If you are asked to help next year, please say yes. It's easy- the supplies are kept at the school and you bring your goodies and decorations and that's it. We try to put someone inexperienced with an experienced hostess and it is a wonderful way to make new friends.
